23 I think some consideration should be shown to men who do honorary work, particularly in the prese stage of public spirit in the Country. Recommendations may be invited from the Presidents of Bangalore and Mysore Municipalities, and the Deputy Commissioners also requested to consult informally in what manner the Honorary Magistrates wish any consideration shown to them and submit their views with their own for the consideration of Government.

29 The point is one for consideration of Govt. It does not seem likely that the persons consulted will fully appreciate the difficulties of Govt. & be reasonable in their aspirations.

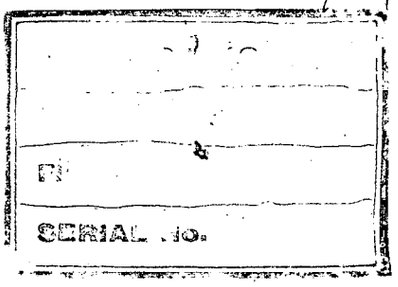
DIARY No. J2948



Extract from Karnataka

Honorary Magistrates in the City.

The following has been sent to us for publication:—While Mr. J. B. Kumarasami Naik was the District Magistrate of Bangalore, this Court was established in 1909. He wrote and spoke in person to several Retired Officers and respectable merchants to accept the office of Hony. Magistrate. Most if not all of them accepted the offer and held sittings for some time. Mr. S. Varadarajiengar first sent in his resignation, perhaps for want of time. Then 4 other gentlemen followed suits. Of these one did not hold a single sitting. Why so many magistrates who had a judicial training and experience in presiding over the court, resigned their seats, we are not now in a position to unearth; but we safely guess that they are not given the status they deserve. If they are not invited to public functions, and if their services are not recognized by the Government and Palace authorities on public occasions, the remaining Honorary Magistrates are likely to lose all interest and enthusiasm in their work and some we hear are prepared to give up their Honorary work. Last month we are told three gentlemen were selected to form the Bench. Of the two colleagues of the chairman or President one attended the court for the 1st fortnight and the other for the 2nd one. The object of the Government in ordering 3 magistrates to sit together at a time is, as all are aware, to prevent miscarriage of justice and the object is defeated when the full number does not hold its sittings. We invite the attention of the 1st member of the Council who has got the judicial portfolio to this matter."
